CELTIC ELECTRICITY

Celtic Electricity is the debut album of Welsh artist Julian David Edwards. The album is a fusion of popular classical songs, Welsh and Irish traditional tracks with some popular movie themes. The album has an intimate feel, with beautiful piano accompaniment and arrangements, which support Julian's mysterious yet soothing tenor qualities. Julian began singing in the valley town of Abertillery in South Wales and has since been fortunate to perform in the West End of London and at Radio City Music Hall in New York. Much of the inspiration for this album has come from his journey from Wales to Broadway. The album was recorded in Cardiff in the summer of 2008 with an all-Welsh production and music team. The album features Green, Green Grass of Home, a song to which Julian greatly relates each time he arrives into Cardiff Airport or reaches the heads of the Valleys after a long train ride to Cardiff from London. Other songs include My Little Welsh Home and Ar Hyd y Nos. Celtic Electricity can be purchased from www.juliandavidedwards.com (for UK sales) or from www.cdbaby.com (for the USA and beyond). More details, including track samples, can also be found on Julian's website or via www.myspace.com/juliandavidedwards.
